Me: What about the worst thing?

Dad: Not as many uni students to share the gospel with in Dunedin, and feeling like I should be doing more.

Me: To finish up, what ministry can kids do in the summer?

Dad: Praying for parents, friends, and siblings, helping parents with home projects, and attending a summer camp and being a model to the other kids.

CHARACTER CHALLENGE

We should use our time wisely as kids, because we only have twenty years to prepare for our lives ahead.
Look up Psalm 90:10
The years of our life are _____, or even by reason of strength _____, yet their span is but toil and _____; they are soon _____, and we fly away.
Look up Psalm 103:15-16
What are man's days like?

Why?

AN INTERVIEW WITH JEFF COLEMAN

I interview my Dad about the ministry work he's doing through the summer.

Me: So first, what ministry work will you be doing through the summer?

Dad: Strategic planning for the year, seeking the Spirit's guidance, forming discipleship groups, and teaching on apologetics.

Me: What will you be doing differently from what you do in the school year?

Dad: Resting and spending time with family a lot more. We also have a Great Walk planned.

Me: ~~Ministry wise~~ What do you think is the best thing about ministry in the holidays?

Dad: Thankfulness for what God has done in the past year, and setting ministry goals for the next year.

Look up Ecclesiastes 3:1
For every to there is a season, and a for every matter under heaven.

Look up Ephesians 5:16

Making the of the time, because the days are .

TIME ACTIVITIES

1. Make a chart of all the things you do each day in the order you do them, and use it to help you complete the tasks at the proper time each day.
2. Schedule regular jobs for each day of the week (i.e. ... clean room on Saturday, clean rabbit cage on Monday).
3. Design a project with a deadline and schedule your time in order to finish by the deadline.
4. Make a list of quick jobs that you can refer to when you have 5-10 minutes to spare.
