

1 CORINTHIANS 13 CHALLENGE

Read 1 Corinthians 13 When you get to the "Love is patient, love is kind..." part, substitute your name for love. Doesn't sound much like you, does it? Now comes the challenge. Asking God for help every day, work on one attribute of love a day. On the first day, work on being patient ect. A good way to do it is to write a list in the morning of ideas to practice your attribute of love for the day. or just take every chance to be patient ect. If you don't understand an attribute, ask an adult. You can start at the beginning again when you finish if you want. You probably won't be perfectly loving all the time, but this challenge will help you understand what love is and help you be more loving

MAZE (sorry it's too easy)

How many words can you make out of the words
CONFESSION and HUMILITY?

What do these kids need for their camping trip?

TRAMPOLINE GAMES

DODGE BALL

Put 5 balls on the trampoline and bounce around. The bouncing will cause the balls to move around. If one of them touches you, sit down and count to 20.

Add more balls to make it harder.

CRAWL DODGE BALL

Play like dodgeball, but use less balls and crawl instead of bouncing.

LOGS AND BRIDGES

One person sits against the side of the trampoline with his legs sticking up.

The others run around the outside of the tramp, jumping over the "log".

If one of them passes someone else, is touched by a ball the "log" rolls at them, or doesn't freeze when someone falls down, they become the "log".

TRAFFIC LIGHTS

Since you probably already know this game, I'll just share the extra light colors we made up.

Purple light = sit down

Blue light = bounce

Black light = kick a ball

Orange light = silly dance

White light = Make up

Your own!

BLIND MAN TAG

One person shuts their eyes and tries to catch the other players. If he catches one of them, they switch places.

KICK

Put 1 less ball on the trampoline than there are people.

Try to kick the ball and hit the other players below the waist.

You can play this game with or without penalties for getting hit.
